SEPTEMBER 21: CORONA VS. MORENO VALLEY: There wasn't much question as to who won the game, the only question was: by how much? Well now we know—29-0. It's hard to whip the crowd into a frenzy when there's really no contest, but Corona fans went home content anyway. The running game won it, since no passes were completed, and the defense kept Moreno Valley out of the endzone. Can't Complain. 1. Tony Davilla, Gary Peterson. 2. Denise Tronti, Francis Wahington. 3. Bob Turner breaks away from Moreno Valley lineman. 4. Rick Carr runs around the end. 5. Anthony Garcia avoids tacklers. 6. Panthers pick up easy yardage.

SEPTEMBER 21-24: MONTEREY JAZZ FESTIVAL The 1972-73 Corona High Jazz Ensemble returned to Monterey as the California Honorary High School Band. As last April's state champions they were not eligible for this year's competition. Great names in jazz Dizzy Gillespie, Buddy Rich, & Bo Diddly appeared at the three-day festival. Due to the lack of legitiment competitive circumstances the mood of the trip was needless to say "RELAXED" with the adventures of Sheriff Bill and Gang. 1. Blake Gardner. 2. Jim Dell. 3. panthers rebound with decisive win

SEPTEMBER 28: Corona vs. Poly: The winning streak ended abruptly as the Poly defense stifled Bobby Turner's passing attack and held Rick Carr to short yardage until the second half. Steve Day ran in for the only touchdown midway into the fourth quarter to make the final score 14 to 6. 1. Karen Shrempp, Sherri Keller, Holly Zehnder. 2. Bobby Turner cuts back to avoid Poly defense. OCTOBER 5: Corona vs. John Glenn: Well, Corona got their "stuff" together and walked all over John Glenn to a score of 41-3. By "stuff" it is meant that they figured out what they had done right and what they had done wrong before, and then did the "right" ones and came out on top. Here we go again. 3. Turner and Co. approach end zone. 4. Randy Leonti is pulled down by John Glenn lineman. 5. Brad Blankenship picks up yardage against John Glenn. 6. Patty Flores.

The student government coordinated student body activities and attempted to get students involved in projects relating to their particular interests. Through seeking the opinions of the A.S.B. and finding out its wants, student officers addressed themselves to problems and questions concerning the school. Only through delegating responsibility and respecting the ideas of all students can the student council be successful in its leadership. Fred Neill

CORONA VS. NOTRE DAME: OCTOBER 11:
Another one of those hard fought victories. The offense just kept gravitating towards the endzone and Notre Dame didn't feel like getting in the way. 28-0 at the half, Corona still kept up the pace 'til the end of the game except for a lapse early in the 4th allowing Notre Dame to get their only 6pts. of the evening. As if it mattered, the final score was 55-6. 1. Larry Hinojos rambles downfield 2. Coach Nixon gives offense 1st quarter strategy 3. Fred Lopez waits for one of Turner's passes 4. SHUFFLE CONCERT OCTOBER 15:
The dynamic group "Shuffle" brought a lot of hand-clapping and foot stomping to the students of CHS. How did they do this? Wellll. . . some people played with funny things that had strings, one sang and wore funny shoes, and one did nothing but beat sticks on round things. What does this do to some people?
Wellll. . . some tap their feet, others sway to and fro, and some even get up and gyrate their bodies—this is called dance. Regardless of the "strange" things people do when they are excited, "Shuffle" was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended either at school or at the night concert. 1. Bass guitarist Terry Cosburn makes google eyes at Patty Flores. 2. Lead singer Rick Fitts boogies with Andee Faus. 3. Patty Flores googles back.

"Tomorrowland," they said. Translated into colors, read "silver and green." From this, the students, rushing about, conceived of fun and funny things to do to celebrate this thing they call "Homecoming." Silly things were done by few and a good time was had by all. A success, of course. All was climaxed by the game. They came in buses to meet us. And the crowd roared. They scored, twice, and the crowd sighed. We scored, once, and the crowd roared and so it went. It rained but we kept scoring, and the crowd roared, we had won. football teams

For a few hours a week, crowds of people, warmly bundled and smiling, cheered as they watched the culmination of the week's practice and pain. Nine times the men ran about on the field, in strange and colorful garb, moving a small oblong ball towards one end or the other. And eachtime they went home satisfied, having expended all their energy, and, more often than not, victorious. And the crowd cheered . . .

It started out very nicely with a neat trouncing of Moreno Valley, and after a negligible loss to Poly, three more strong victories. Notre Dame was the most notable of the three, as the panthers rolled easily by and ended up with a 55-6 win. A few disappointments followed by Corona bounced back in the final game against Colton, generally considered an upset.

The sophomores, being relatively new at this idea of bumping-into-others-and-moving-the-brown ball-forward did not fare so well. Eight times they tried and twice they were successful, and once moderately so, pulling out a tie. Paradoxically, their last game, a 13-6 loss to San Bernardino was judged the best of their efforts by Coach Fritz, so the season ended on a positive note.

And again this year a shower of awards descended on worthy players. Eight varsity players made all-league: Rick Carr, Perry Keeter, Marty Hrachiar, and Larry Hinojos; first team, while Anthony Garcia, Fred Lopez, Keith McDaniels, and Rick Wilkerson were chosen for the second team. Team honors went to Larry Hinojos as Captain and defensive back of the year and Bob Turner as offensive back. Carlos Reynoso and Perry Keeter were awarded defensive and offensive linemen, respectively. The 'most inspirational player' award went to Keith McDaniel, while Tony Garcia received the Mr. Hustle' award. Rick Carr was named the team's most valuable player.

CROSS COUNTRY SUMMARY OF 1973-1974 SEASON: This years Cross Country team finished one of the best seasons in the past six years. The Varsity team recorded a 6 win 2 loss season while the Junior Varsity team finished 7-1. One of the Varsity losses was to Colton the league champs and the other was to Palm Springs the runner up.

This was the year of records as eight individuals ran the two mile course in the 10:00 minute range, this was the most outstanding performance in the last six years. Two new school records were also set, a Jr. Class record of 10:10 by Henry Juarez and a Soph. Class record of 10:20 by Danny Barton. With 18 of the 22 runners returning next year it should be a big year. Top photo: Varsity: 1st row: Gary Peterson, Henry Juarez, Danny Barton, Rick McLaughlin, Greg Fritz. 2nd row: Steve Jones, Cliff RainWater, Don Kennedy, Scott Setaro, Joe Valesquez. Bottom photo: Junior Varsity: 1st row: Dan Davidson, Ruben Amesquita, Steve Harris, Lannie Checketts, Bill Keifer, Pete Apodaca. 2nd row: Kurt Noyes, Allen Gunn, Tony Davila, Lee Rhodes, Craig Deleo, Don Kammerer manager.

corona dumps gladstone

In a not so hard-fought soccor contest against Gladstone, Corona came out on top, of course. Encountering only a minimum of opposition, they scored seven times, kicking the little round ball in the big cloth net. Gladstone rarely made it downfield and never could score. And when it was over, they boarded their long yellow bus quietly and departed. And so started yet another season, as Corona remains undefeated. 1. Leonardo Ramirez dribbles downfield faking out disgruntled Gladstone player. 2. He is immediately attacked by a valiant Gladstone defensive man. 3. But avoids having the ball taken away and goes on to score for the Panthers. 4. Clint Arrowood looks on as Javier Oniroz tries, unsuccessfully, to "sneak in" a goal. 5. Leading goalmaker, Martin Jauregui, begns his march downfield to the opponents goal.

DECEMBER 12, CHRISTMAS CONCERT: The folks came bundled, full of hope, frost on their noses, it was the season . . . and as all became quiet, the symphonic band filled the music pavillion with visions of Tchaikovsky's sugar plums. GAA TENNIS AND VOLLEYBALL

GAA's tennis and volleyball teams competed vigorously against teams from other schools in the area with a modicum of success. Both did well and definitely won some or all of their games. Batting balls across nets with wild abandon and with or without the aid of rackets, they soundly trounced the opposition on a number of occassions. And so, a good time was had by all as the girls moved on to bigger and better things. 1. GAA tennis: Row 1 (l-r)-Georgina Perez, Janet Wilcox, Juanita Mejia, Alexis Ellenson. FEBRUARY 1: CORONA vs NORTH: It only takes one point, or so they say. And Matysak came through in the last two seconds to supply it. Sure would have saved a lot of near hysteria and sore throats of there had been a little wider margin. But then, there's always something to be said for suspense. It had been the other way around the time before, so revenge was sweet, and Corona fans left for home (?) hoarse, but content. For those who keep track of these things, the final score was said to be 62-61. Gordy Leverich waits for fourth quarter opening in defense. 2. DelCampo works his way down court. 3. FEBRUARY 15: POWDERPUFF FOOTBALL. Everybody, it seems, wants to get into the action. The more athletically oriented ladies on campus weren't content to leave not-so-well enough alone, and so they grouped and regrouped and then ran out onto the football field for a fun-filled afternoon of bumping and grinding, athletically speaking of course. Meanwhile, back on the sidelines, their male counterparts bounced up and down pumping spirit into the frenzied crowd. At any rate when the dust had settled, the seniors emerged victorious by a score of 6-0. And that, as they say, was that. Please hum the alma mater on your way to lunch, folks. 1. And out they came in red and gold, bouncing back and forth to the crowd's delight. The idea was to drop the orange ball through the hoop at the far end of the building as often as possible, and so they did . . . although, sometimes, not as often as hoped. But in our hearts we knew we were right . . . Non-league games were considered more satisfying (in the end) than those within the league as Corona won eleven out of sixteen, but the stiffer league competition held the Panthers to two wins in eight outings. On a brighter note, however, the team took second in the George Ingalls Tourney prior to the opening of the league season. And there were honors . . . Gordy Leverich made the Ivy League first team as well as being MVP for the Corona varisty, George Beard got honorable mention in Ivy League listings and was named most improved player, Tom Hawkins was voted Best Defensive Player and Rick Wilkerson was elected team captain. 1. They pair off in groups of eleven, each eleven from a separate campus . . . clad in stripes or solids they come together to push, kick, and battle one small white ball past the other's man (called a goalie in the soccer world) at the far end of the field. This year's soccer team, as records go (14-5-1) stand as a group which battled among the best. Two men, Martin Jauregui and Ramon Cardinas scored 22 goals each in overall competition . . . that's what one calls 'star'.

And then there were the wrestlers, who grappled their way to the Ivy League championship with a show of great skill and daring. Coach Alzuguray, it seems, put together a team that was just that—a team; as everyone worked together and made the scores in their meets decidedly one-sided. A slew of individuals (Darrell Mann, Larry Hinojos, Joe Arteaga, Monty Holden, and Marty Hrachiar) won individual championships. Hinojos was the most notable of the five, with an impressive 33 wins, 2 losses, and a tie. This is what they call success. 1. . . . and the final score, corona 96 - poly 22

FEBRUARY 21; CORONA VS. POLY:" . . . will Varsity 120 hurdlers please report to the west end of the track." . . . and so it went, call after call, one event after another. Individuals in their red and gold satin undies, proving their atheletic worth in team and individual effort. Rick Quezada-120 H.H. (15.6); 440 Relay (45.4); Fred Lopez-440 (52.2); Pat Donahue-High Jump (5'8") . . . and the list went on . . . with the final result ending in Corona's great favor (96-22). 1. Gilbert Barton 2. Rick Carr 3. Danny May 4. Rick Gilmaster 5. Danny Carr.

Randolf Hearst initiates $2 million food-to-poor program to appease SLA

And there were those who couldn't resist the lure of the uniform, as dozens of girls answered the call of the hospital recruiters and rushed down to serve god and country and the AMA. Smartly attired in red and white, they toiled tirelessly for the betterment of man and mankind, cleaning and scrubbing, soothing screaming babies, and running errands for those in the higher echelons of nursery.

. . . and again they say it is more difficult to create as one of a group than by yourself . . . and still they came in their long robes, and in flowing pink and bow ties, all the same, to create . . . and it was beautiful. From the Messiah through Shout, to the Spring Festivals . . . "remarkable" . . . and they go away glad that they came together. 1. change of command

MARCH 1: CHANGE OF COMMAND: Somewhere between 'Shaft' and 'Semper Fidelis' men and women with pomp and dignity and a small amount of humor stood and praised the other men and women while the United States Marines looked on. And, by golly, Mr. Pfeiffer bowed out and Mr. Vaughn bowed in, all the while reaffirming the fact that, by gosh, we were really a great bunch of kids. Gee whiz, when do we get the graham crackers and milk?

corona hosts festival

MARCH 9: BAND FESTIVAL: French horns, flutes, kettle drums; and the music pavillion, complete with showers, filled with the sound of the Wind Ensemble and visiting bands. Each was critiqued in its turn by a panel of distinguished gentlemen, considered knowledgable about quarter notes, tone and the like. As functions go, it was worthwhile, even without mentioning Corona received a superior rating for their performance. Bobby Riggs, who knows, but the turnout for tennis was greater than in past years. And so it went, back and forth, to game point, hopefully ours. Returning lettermen, Steve Holtman, Chuck Doolittle, and Mike Cobb rated 1, 2, 3 on Coach Nino's varsity roster, while Brenda Daniels and Bruce Hicks were among the top players in the J.V. ranks. Early season play showed team strength in the singles competition . . . and so it continued, back and forth . . . game. 1. Fielding one of the largest teams in recent history, Corona trackmen built a strong team record in early season competition; defeating John Glenn, Poly and Norco. Earning forty and forty-six medals in the Santa Ana and Palm Springs Relays respectively, Coach List looked forward to a strong season. Heavy steel balls, broken poles, wet sand, pulled ligaments, individual wins and team glory . . . and so goes another season, coach. 1.
